APC Annual Scientific and Clinical Meeting 2018

Incorporating Australasian Symposium of Pancreatic Disease (ASPAN)

Date: FRIDAY 7th SEPTEMBER, 2018
(One day prior to the 2018 Australian Gastroenterology Week Conference)

Venue: BRISBANE CONVENTION CENTRE

The Australasian Pancreatic Club and ASPAN are joining forces for 2018 and will run a single meeting incorporating both the latest scientific research and the optimal clinical management of patients with pancreatic disease. The clinical content will be discussed by a panel of experts using a case-based format and cutting-edge scientific research will be presented by experts in the field. We look forward to welcoming Professor Nageshwar Reddy from the Asian Institute of Gastroenterology Hyderabad, Dr Jorge Obando from Duke University Medical Centre, North Carolina, Professor Aida Habtezion from Stanford University, California, as well as a host of Australian physicians, surgeons, radiologists, oncologists and eminent local scientists.
